

May 2015 is Watershed Month!

Bring the family and join the community!

Saturday, May 2nd

- “The Stream of Life” Student/ Amateur Art Exhibition. Support the region’s local budding artists at an Opening Reception, 3PM Kaaterskill Fine Art Gallery, Hunter. Exhibit runs through May 31st. Refreshments served.

Wednesday, May 6th

- Trout Release/ Macroinvertebrate Study/ Flycasting and Tying at Dolan’s Park, Hunter. Register by contacting Schoharie Watershed Program (518) 589-6871 or michelle@gcswcd.com.

Saturday, May 9th

- Changing Trout Habitat in the Upper Schoharie Creek. Join Walt Keller, retired NYS DEC Fisheries Biologist, and a panel of speakers in exploring the factors that influence stream health and fish populations. Platte Clove Neighborhood Center, 1915 County Route 16, Hunter, 10:30 AM.

Saturday, May 23rd

- Paddle the Schoharie Reservoir. Catskill Outback Adventures will lead this trip from Snyder’s Cove on opening weekend. Registration required. Space is limited! RSVP at the number below.

Thursday, May 28th

- Dragon, Damselfly and other Aquatic Invertebrates Workshop for Children. 3:30 PM, Village of Hunter. This after school program will teach kids about the insects and animals that play important roles in the watershed and the role streams play in the environment.

Saturday May 30th

- Interpretive watershed hike/Bearpen Mountain. 9 AM - 2 PM. Join Peter Manning for this 7-mile hike with panoramic views of the Schoharie Watershed. Moderate - Difficult. Bring lunch. Registration required by 5/29: localtouristpqm@gmail.com (Rain date: May 31st).

Saturday May 30th

- “The Schoharie Basin and Its Ice Age History.” Bob and Johanna Titus tell the story of how glaciers shaped the Schoharie Basin and created its most scenic views. 6 PM at the Mountaintop Historical Society, Route 23-A, Haines Falls.

6th Annual Schoharie Watershed Month

May 2015

Free Family Fun
Get to know your watershed!

For a full list of activities, times, &
locations call the Schoharie
Watershed Program office at 518-589-6871, or email
michelle@gcswcd.com